Instructions for BE/BTech 'In-person Counselling'

1. Personal presence of the candidate/authorised representative during counselling/admission is essential for all eligible candidates seeking upgradation/admission.
2. A candidate desirous of seeking admission against the available seats will bring the original certificates on the scheduled date of counselling/admission.
3. The allotment of discipline at the time of counseling/admission will be made on the basis of the seats available in a particular discipline and category at that instance of time, the order of preferences for various disciplines given by the candidate, and his/her merit according to JEE

(Main) score. The candidates appearing for the counselling shall have the option of either retaining the preference order given during the first counselling or can submit fresh preference order.

4. Candidate who either does not seek admission on a particular date as per counselling/ Admission Schedule or fails to attend the counselling or has been admitted in the previous counsellings will also be eligible for admission on the subsequent round(s) of admission as per Counselling/Admission Schedule. However, the allotment of discipline to such a candidate will be made subject to the availability of seat(s) in a particular discipline at that instance of time, the order of preference for various disciplines given by the candidate and his/her merit according to JEE (Main) score. The previously admitted students while appearing in subsequent rounds of counselling(s) for branch upgradation shall not be required to deposit any extra fee.
5. A candidate who reports late for admission during counselling will not be eligible for the discipline according to his/her original merit position but will be offered a seat in the discipline where the seats are available at that instance of time/day.
6. If a candidate is offered admission and he/she does not deposit the prescribed fees and original certificate immediately after selection, the offer so made shall be treated as cancelled and the seat will be offered to the candidate next in order of merit. No correspondence or appeal in this regard will be entertained.
